

DIRECTORY OF STYLE

ART GALLERIES & AUCTION HOUSES

ART GALLERY L'OEIL ET LA MAIN

Paris
This gallery near the Musée d'Orsay features primitive statues and masks from Mali, Cameroon, and other African countries.
african-paris.com
✓ Robin Standefer & Stephen Alesch

DOROTHEUM

Vienna
The Dorotheum holds auctions in more than 80 categories ranging from watches to weapons. In the museum-like building (a former convent), visitors can preview hundreds of goods.
dorotheum.com
✓ Aerin Lauder

GALERIE CHRISTIAN BERST

Paris
Since 2005, Berst has been promoting Art Brut ("raw art") by showcasing the works of outside-the-box creators. In October the gallery opened a U.S. outpost on New York City's Lower East Side.
christianberst.com
✓ Natalie Chanin

GALERIE EVA PRESENHUBER

Zurich
Presehuber, who has two gallery spaces in the city, has exhibited the works of Doug Aitken, Franz West, Eva Rothschild, and other contemporary artists from all over the world.
presehuber.com
✓ Aerin Lauder

GAVIN BROWN'S ENTERPRISE

New York City
This risk-taking West Village gallery (which opened a second location on the Lower East Side at the end of last year) is famous for encouraging artists to push limits—whether it's letting Rirkrit Tiravanija remove all the windows and doors to the street or Urs Fischer dig an 8-by-38-foot crater in the floor.
gavinbrown.biz
✓ Andy Spade

GORDIAN WEBER KUNSTHANDEL

Cologne, Germany
Gordian Weber, an art historian and archaeologist, specializes in ancient Mediterranean works, from Tunisian stone mosaics to Roman marble busts. His prestigious gallery is popular with both private collectors and museum curators.
gordian-weber-kunsthandel.com
✓ Tomas Maier

L'ARC EN SEINE

Paris
Founded in 1984, this temple to Art Deco furniture and art has highlighted the work of Jean-Michel Frank, Paul Dupré-Lafon, the Giacometti brothers, and other design icons of 1925–1939.
arcenseine.com
✓ Aerin Lauder

MARIAN GOODMAN GALLERY

London
In October, Gerhard Richter broke in Marian Goodman's newest space—11,000 square feet in a former Victorian warehouse—with an exhibition of more than 40 of his pieces. The gallerist, who has been a champion of contemporary art since the 1970s, has other outposts in New York City and Paris.
mariangoodman.com
✓ Aerin Lauder

PAULA COOPER GALLERY

New York City
With a focus on conceptual and minimal art, Paula Cooper's two exhibition spaces on the same block in Chelsea host concerts, dance performances, and poetry readings as well as art shows.
paulacoopergallery.com
✓ Emmanuel Perrotin

A flower-and-berry arrangement by Emily Thompson.

"If Paula Cooper has not acquired the fame of a Gagosian, it's only because of her own private way of working."

—EMMANUEL PERROTIN

RAGO ARTS AND AUCTION CENTER

Lambertville, New Jersey
Thirty minutes outside Trenton, David Rago, a regular appraiser on PBS's Antiques Roadshow, runs this auction house with Suzanne Perrault (a ceramics expert who is also his wife) and Miriam Tucker, who handles fine art.
ragoarts.com
✓ Robin Standefer & Stephen Alesch

FLOWERS & PLANTS

BLUMENKRAFT

Vienna
Huge arched windows and industrial pendant lamps illuminate the simple, artful bouquets of local and exotic blooms in this minimalist storefront.
blumenkraft.at
✓ Aerin Lauder

CHRISTIAN TORTU

Tokyo
Tortu's unique, elegant aesthetic has made him a favorite florist of Parisian couture houses and the Cannes Film Festival. His Tokyo and Osaka flower shops showcase his arrangements as well as his lovely candles and vases.
christian-tortu.jp
✓ Tomas Maier

Gallery owner Christian Berst.

"Rago's design auctions are wonderful sources for finding pieces or for simply getting inspired."

—ROBIN STANDEFER & STEPHEN ALESCH

A 19th-century French settee for auction at the Dorotheum.